Angel Foundation
Happy Hour

The term "happy hour" says it all: a pleasant period of feel-good-ery, but a fleeting one.

Thankfully, there's a way to hold on to that warm-fuzzy sensation even after the buzz fades (and it still involves drink specials). This Saturday, join the Debbie Pieri Angel Foundation (DPAF) for its second annual "Cocktails for a Cause" at Public House Logan Square.

Inspired by the foundation's namesake, the late Debbie Pieri, the Conshohocken-based nonprofit aims to play the role of guardian angel to local individuals and families battling terminal diseases or life-altering catastrophes, offering both financial and moral support.

Your much appreciated $20 donation to DPAF nets a bracelet entitling you to a bevy of beverage bargains: from 7 to 10 p.m., enjoy $2 drafts, $3 bottles, and $4 you-call-its. Don't miss your chance to raise your glass to something that matters.

Bonus: The late March date will leave you with both enough time and motivation to kick the hangover headache and gear up for the foundation's May 20th four-day Bike Ride from Philadelphia to the Outer Banks, N.C.
